Mini Story: Gabby's New Year Paw-mises

On a chilly New Year's Eve, Gabby sat by the window watching sparkly lights twinkle in the sky. "Woof!" she wagged her tail. "A brand-new year is almost here!"

Gabby grabbed her favorite notebook and thought about all the fun paw-mises she wanted to make for the New Year.

"I paw-mise to be kind," Gabby said, thinking of helping her friends.

"I paw-mise to try new things," she smiled, imagining new adventures.

"And I paw-mise to have lots of fun!" she barked happily.

When the clock finally struck midnight, colorful fireworks popped and sparkled outside. Gabby jumped up and cheered, "Happy New Year!" With her heart full and her tail wagging, Gabby knew this New Year would be full of learning, laughter, and exciting surprises.
