

MERRY CHRISTMAS FROM GABBY

Santa's Little Helper

On Christmas Eve, the North Pole sparkled under the twinkling stars.

Gabby zipped up her cozy coat and waved as Santa prepared his sleigh.

Just as the reindeer were ready to fly, Santa noticed something was missing.

“Oh ho ho,” he chuckled, “my list of toy stops is gone!” Gabby’s ears perked up. “I can help!” she said with a happy wag.

She climbed into the sleigh and helped Santa check each toy sack.

Soon, Gabby spotted the list tucked under a pile of jingle bells.

“There it is!” Gabby barked cheerfully.

Santa smiled. “Thank you, little helper. Would you like to ride along?”

As the sleigh soared into the night sky, Gabby sat proudly beside Santa, watching snowflakes dance below. Together, they delivered joy to children everywhere.

When the last gift was delivered, Santa gave Gabby a gentle pat.

“You made Christmas extra special.”

Gabby smiled all the way home, knowing even small helpers can make big magic.
