

Gabby's Garden Surprise

Gabby the dog loved spending time in her garden.

One morning, she picked up her little watering can to help the flowers grow.

She carefully watered the two bright flowers and watched them sway happily in the sun.

Suddenly, a little butterfly landed on one of the flowers.

Gabby wagged her tail. "Hello, little friend! I'm glad you like our garden."

The butterfly flapped its wings and danced around the flowers, making the garden feel even more cheerful.

Gabby smiled. "Helping the flowers is fun, but sharing it with friends is even better!"
