

Hermie Finds A Home

By D.C. McDowell Presented by Gabberdaberdo

Gabby the mermaid was swimming through a colorful coral reef.

She spotted her friend Hermie looking sad.

"What's wrong?" asked Gabby.

"My shell is too small," said Hermie.

"I'll help you find a new one!"

Together they searched the ocean floor.

The first shell was so big
Hermie got lost inside it!

The second shell was so small,
Hermie's tail wouldn't even fit.

Then they found a beautiful spiral shell.
Hermie carefully climbed inside.

"It fits perfectly!" he cheered.

Gabby and Hermie swam and played around the reef, happy that he had found his new home.

The End
