

Gabby and the Unicorn

One sunny morning, Gabby looked up at the sky and saw something amazing.

A beautiful unicorn with sparkling wings was flying above the clouds!

“Hello!” called Gabby.

The unicorn flew down and landed softly beside her.

“Would you like to see the mountains?” asked the unicorn.

Gabby climbed onto its back, and up they flew!

They soared past the fluffy clouds and over the tall, green mountains.

The wind tickled Gabby’s ears as they flew higher and higher.

“What a wonderful adventure!” Gabby laughed.

As the sun began to set, the unicorn carried Gabby safely home.

“Every day can be magical,” Gabby said with a smile.
